General Education has comprehensive learning outcomes for the students who complete it, including the following:

1. An understanding of the basic content and methodology of the major areas of knowledge: areas include the humanities and fine arts, the natural sciences, and the social sciences.

2. A capability to be a productive individual and lifelong learner:
   - Oral and written communication
   - Information competency
   - Computer literacy
   - Scientific and quantitative reasoning
   - Critical analysis/logical thinking
   - Ability to acquire knowledge through a variety of means

3. A recognition of what it means to be an ethical human being and effective citizen:
   - Appreciation of ethical principles
   - Civility and interpersonal skills
   - Respect for cultural diversity
   - Historical and aesthetic sensitivity
   - Willingness to assume civic, political, and social responsibilities locally, nationally, and globally